Dear Customer,

Enclosed are new and revised Safety Data Sheets (SDS) for the products which you ordered recently from Ecolab. Our safety documents are updated as new data are available. Please replace the old versions with the most recent SDSs enclosed. If you distribute an Ecolab product to another place, you may be required to provide a copy of the SDS to that location.

SAFETY REMINDER

- Use products ONLY for recommended uses.
- NEVER transfer product to unlabeled containers.
- Products are for professional use only, please follow the use directions.

If you are not directly responsible for the use of the SDSs or the information they contain, we ask that you forward them to the appropriate person(s) in your organization.

Please contact your local sales representative if you need any further assistance.
