

Introducing your local team

With a comprehensive range of catering, cooking, cleaning and commercial equipment, The Hospitality Store brings together all your local business needs to one place.

The store, conveniently located at 5 Prescott Street (across the road from Clark Rubber), is managed by Peter Regenberg, who brings to the role decades of hospitality experience and expertise.

“We aim to provide complete solutions for our customers, not just individual products.”

Peter began his impressive hospitality career as a chef, working at Conrad Jupiters and Royal Pines Resort.

He then moved on to managing restaurants in Rockhampton before settling in Toowoomba.

Peter then became a site manager for the base hospital café and TAFE refectory before being appointed the Catering Manager of the University of Queensland Gatton Campus, a role he held for seven years.

While working at UQ he managed four food outlets with the assistance of 34 staff serving an impressive 1400 meals daily.

Now as manager of The Hospitality Store Toowoomba, Peter uses his years of experience and industry know-how to deliver the best service and products to the hospitality industry.

“Turning my back on the punishing catering hours meant I could dedicate my time to helping others in the industry with the assistance of my hard working team,” Peter said.

The staff within the store bring together a wealth of knowledge and expertise from varied positions and sectors of the hospitality industry.

“We know every business has different needs and our extensive product range means that whatever your focus, we have a solution for you,” Peter said.

“We aim to provide complete solutions for our customers, not just individual products.

“We want you to be able to come to the store and find everything you need in one place,” he said.

With over 5000 products from napkins to equipment, coupled with a friendly knowledgeable team, The Hospitality Store by Reward Distribution is passionate about hospitality and understands the needs of your business.
